

Nevada Hotel and Lodging Association Committees

NHLA committees are open to all members. The purpose of the committees is to ensure NHLA is offering the most relevant and beneficial resources and education for our members in each area. The committees meet once quarterly in person or by conference call.

Education Committee

The Education committee assists in guiding NHLA in providing educational resources, activities, seminars, webinars, industry programs, certifications and other related information for NHLA members.

Clean and Green Committee

The Clean and Green committee promotes best practices in housekeeping and sustainability, efficiency, communication, education and environmental practices in today's Hospitality Industry. Focus is on best operational practices to reduce costs while increasing guest satisfaction. Committee assists in coordination the annual related conference.

Food and Beverage Committee

Our mission for the Hotel Food & Beverage committee of NHLA is to offer training classes, knowledge resources and trade tastings for members. Additionally, this committee supports fundraising events for the Nevada Hotel and Lodging Foundation scholarship programs.

Safety and Security Committee

The Safety and Security Committee guides NHLA in providing an annual conference, information, updates, alerts, news, resources, education and related community affairs for members.

Government Affairs Committee

The mission is to promote the hospitality industry by developing and maintaining relationships with key government officials, ensure that there is adequate monitoring of state and federal legislation including issues that may affect the association and members, keep members apprised of pending or pertinent new laws or regulations, and make recommendations to the board of directors addressing government affairs activities that may affect the industry.

NHLA Women in Lodging Committees

NHLA Women in Lodging is the premier state-wide industry organization exclusively for female hospitality professionals. NHLA Women in Lodging provides the ideal forum to promote women's leadership as well as professional career development. NHLA Women in Lodging offers a dynamic mentor program, seminars, workshops, networking events, community philanthropic involvement, and access to female industry leaders.

Mentor Committee

The WIL mentor committee helps to guide the activities and coordination of the mentor programs that are offered two times per year for the WIL members.

Philanthropy Committee

The WIL philanthropy committee leads the activities in support of the selected charitable organizations which may include donation drives, fundraising events and educational resources.

Ambassador Committee

The WIL Ambassador committee is responsible for welcoming new WIL members and ensuring they become engaged and active in NHLA and WIL to meet their professional goals and interests.

NHLA Emerging Leaders Committees

Emerging Leaders is a division of the Nevada Hotel and Lodging Association comprised of young industry professionals under the age of 36. Under the guidance of the NHLA staff, it exists to engage young professionals in the Nevada hospitality and support industries through the development of local resources including networking, mentorship, philanthropic and educational opportunities.

Emerging Leaders Council

The council is comprised of leaders from across the NHLA membership with responsibilities to include assisting in coordinating relevant events and providing resources for our younger leaders.

Events Committee

The events committee assists in creating and managing events for the Emerging Leader members with an average of 1-2 events per quarter. The events focus on leadership development, educational opportunities, certifications and other relevant resources.

Mentor Committee

The mentor committee members help to coordinate activities related to the Emerging Leaders mentor program which is offered twice a year.

Social Media Committee

Members on the Emerging Leaders social media committee take responsibility in posting interesting and related information, calendar events, member news and pictures on NHLA Facebook, LinkedIn and Instagram.

The Nevada Hotel & Lodging Foundation

Supporting the industry and community, we help to create futures.

VISION

To be the leading provider of educational financial support for Nevadan families in the hospitality industry

MISSION

We fuel the hospitality industry by providing the opportunity for further education for Nevadans

VALUES

INVEST

We invest our time to benefit the talent in Nevada

NEVADA FIRST

We plan to support Nevadans while focusing on members of NHLA and their families

COMMUNITY

We will rally our whole community to find support from all industries for the betterment of our state

ACCOUNTABLE

We will remain accountable to our industry

MENTORSHIP

We will guide the hospitality career of all academic beneficiaries through a robust mentorship program

THINK BIG

We will grow and help as many Nevadans in the hospitality industry as possible

NHLF Committees

Fundraising Committee

The fundraising committee has the responsibility to meet the financial goal set each year. This is accomplished through soliciting and receiving monetary contributions from donors within and outside the hospitality industry.

Events/F&B Committee

The Events and Food and Beverage committee is responsible for creating, managing and coordinating events annually that generate funds for the foundation. A minimum of one main event will take place and be developed into a signature event on an annual basis. Smaller, more frequent events will be scheduled throughout the year with proceeds benefitting the foundation.

Education/Mentoring Committee

The education and mentor committee exists to develop and maintain the related foundation program components including scholarship application process, communication and administration.

Communication Committee

The communication committee is responsible for helping to develop, create and maintain the brand throughout all communication areas including website, social media and marketing or informational collateral.

To join a committee, please contact Diane Gandy, 702-878-9272 or diane.gandy@nvhotels.com.

We welcome your participation, guidance, ideas and support.
